THE MYSORE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL, HEBBAL, BANGALORE.

Notification No. 1039—A. S., dated 16th May 1931.

The Mysore Agricultural School at Hebbal, Bangalore will commence work for the session 1931-32 on the 6th July 1931. The purpose of the school is to train not specialists, but efficient and intelligent Agriculturists. The course of instruction is therefore as practical as possible. In the selection of students, preference will be given to those whose parents own land in Mysore and are engaged in supervising its cultivation. Admission will be given only to those who have passed the S. S. L. C. Examination. The selected candidates must be prepared to do all kinds of Farm work.

The course extends over three years. Should particular students show special aptitude for Scientific work and should they desire it, arrangements will be made for their further training in any of the branches of Agricultural Science.

No fee is charged for tuition. Medical attendance is free. No rent is charged for rooms and furniture. Government and District Boards provide a number of scholarships.

Students must, soon after their arrival, deposit a sum of Rs. 5 as caution money to cover the breakages, etc., and a sum of Rs. 20 as hostel advance.

Applications for admission should be sent to the Vice-Principal, Agricultural School, Hebbal Post, Bangalore, in the prescribed form attached hereto and which can be obtained from him. The application should be filled up in the candidate's own hand writing and supported by the necessary certificates. They should reach the Vice-Principal on or before the 15th June 1931.

A preliminary Entrance Examination in English and Arithmetic will be held on Monday the 22nd June 1931, commencing at 12 noon at all the district headquarters in the Offices of the Deputy Commissioners, except in Bangalore, Tumkur, Mysore, Chikmagalur and Shimoga. At Bangalore the examination will be held at the Agricultural School, Hebbal, at Shimoga and Chikmagalur in the Officers of the Deputy Directors of Agriculture, and at Tumkur and Mysore at the Offices of the Assistant Directors of Agriculture on the same date and at the same time. Scholarships will be awarded and entrance given according to the results of this examination, and an interview of the passed candidates at Bangalore by the Vice-Principal, the Economic Botanist or the Director of Agriculture in Mysore.

The successful candidates at the end of the third year will be given the Diploma of Licentiateship in Agriculture (L. Ag.)
